What is the Calderdale Autism Services Directory?

The Calderdale Autism Services Directory is a holistic document which provides information about groups and organisations which provide a service to people with an Autistic Spectrum Condition (ASC) in Calderdale and surrounding areas. These groups and organisations are currently accessible to people who have an ASC, but may not be Autism specific.

Please note, that some of these groups and organisations may offer multiple services to people with an ASC but have been categorised based on the primary service they offer.

Advocacy

NAS Autism in Maturity Project (National)

The Autism in Maturity project is a national project which aims to provide information and advice to people over the age of 40 via a telephone and email service. Areas where advice can be sought include welfare benefits, community care and housing.

Benefits - Advice on which benefits you may be entitled to and how to complete claim forms; what to do if you think a decision is wrong; and how to appeal to tribunal.

Community Care - Advice on finding out what help you can get from your local social services department; how to access the help; and how to challenge your social services department if you are not happy with their decisions.

Housing - Advice on your rights as a tenant; how to deal with disputes with your landlord; advice if you are facing the loss of your home; and how to access social housing.

Employment

Voluntary Action

Voluntary Action Calderdale is a catalyst for positive social change in Calderdale, working to promote and empower vibrant and cohesive communities.

Voluntary Action Calderdale currently has three projects running:

Safe and Warm Project: The safe and warm project is designed to protect vulnerable individuals, families and communities from the effects of severe winter weather conditions due to cold housing and reduce the number of deaths over winter. In this instance, vulnerable individuals and communities are defined as those with limited means and elderly, disabled, households with children under five or vulnerably housed.

Making Every Contact Count: Making Every Contact Count or MECC is a region wide programme to ensure the workforces serving individuals and communities are competent and confident to make the most of opportunities to improve population health and wellbeing needs. This approach will reduce system-wide costs. Making Every Contact Count (MECC) puts the prevention, protection, and promotion of health and wellbeing at the heart of every contact. The aim is to use each contact with a person to offer appropriate advice, interventions and/or referral to optimise health and wellbeing

Choice Project: Choice is a supported volunteering project which aims to help people who would like to volunteer but may need extra support to do so. Choice involves, encourages and supports volunteers to take full advantage of the volunteering opportunities available whilst promoting equality and diversity. Anyone with additional support needs who feels unable to volunteer independently can use the service. The Choice Supported volunteering project supports volunteers and organisations; it is committed to removing barriers and making volunteering accessible to people of all abilities and backgrounds.

Healthy Minds

Healthy Minds formed in 2007 in response to a need identified by people using statutory mental health services in Calderdale for a local, independent, service user led, mental health organisation in Calderdale.

Healthy Minds is aimed at anyone who has experienced or been affected by mental distress, not just people who use statutory services. This includes carers, people who manage their own health and people who have used but no longer use statutory services.

Healthy Minds currently run an information service to provide information, advice and support to people with mental health issues through regular drop in sessions. They also run an anti-stigma project where people who have experienced mental health stigma can become facilitators to run community based workshops. Healthy Minds also run a 'stress less' course for people to access.

Healthy Minds also run various support groups on a regular basis including:

- Hearing Voices
- Bi-Polar
- Depression
- Mum Time
- Wellbeing Works
- Women's Group
